

My GB Video Competition

If you had only 30 seconds to tell someone all about Girls' Brigade, what would you say?

Some ideas to get you started:

Your name

What you do in GB

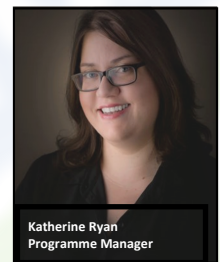

What you like about GB

Why someone should join GB

GB members are asked to record a 30-second video on the theme of My GB. In the style of an "elevator speech" we want entrants to explain what Girls' Brigade is about to someone who has never heard of us.

Entries are open to all members, there will be one prize for entrants aged up to 13, and one for those aged 14 and over.

The competition will be judged by Katherine Ryan, Programme Manager with the Institute of Advertising Practitioners in Ireland.

The Rules:

Your entry should be approximately 30 seconds, videos must be a maximum of 40 seconds.

You should be wearing your GB uniform in your video – casual or PE.

You can submit your videos by email, Facebook messenger, or Whatsapp (0871824440). All entries will be acknowledged.

The closing date for entries is Tuesday May 26th. No late entries can be accepted.

By submitting an entry, you give your permission for your video to be shared online as part of this competition, and to be used in publicity materials for The Girls' Brigade Ireland.
